

Oregon Tech Library Rules of Conduct

Your rights and responsibilities in the library

You have the right to:

- Quiet study spaces in designated areas
- Friendly and helpful interactions with staff
- Use and borrow library materials with respect for the principles of copyright and fair use

You are responsible for:

- Keeping your noise level down; please turn your cell phones to silent or vibrate
- A clean and safe environment for you, fellow library users and library staff, including wearing appropriate attire (shirt and shoes) at all times
- Treating the library staff, other library users, environment and property with respect
- Keeping library clean; drinks with lids and snacks are permitted inside the library; if you notice food or drink spills, please alert a member of library staff